Mrs. Howard Prichard
Guest Speaker at Rotary

The regular luncheon meeting of the Rotarians was held Tuesday at the Lee Hotel with three guests and 36 members present. Martin Guthrie, program chairman, made a few remarks on the public libraries at Hope and Prescott and introduced Mrs. Howard Prichard of Hope, Regional Librarian for Hempstead and Nevada counties, who used books as her subject. She said books are informative, inspiring and give knowledge on every phase of life.

She gave a brief history of the libraries in Arkansas. She explained about the bookmobile that reaches every school, stores, filling station and cross road in Hempstead and Nevada County. Joe Bell, State Extension Horticulturist, Little Rock, was a guest of N. N. Daniel, Jerry Hodgecock, Texarkana was a guest of Wallace Sage.

for Congress. Administration officials said President Eisenhower has decided to ask Congress for about $1,100,000,000 for the year starting July 1. About half the total would be for military aid, and the other half for various forms of economic loans and grants.

The two-billion-dollar figure allocated for military assistance for the year was recommended last year by a White House group headed by William H. Verne, Jr., investment banker. Eisenhower asked $1,600,000,000 for military aid last year, but Congress cut it to $1,300,000,000.

In all, Congress cut about 75 million dollars from the $2,900,000,000 Eisenhower asked last year for foreign aid.

The President's decision to ask for an even higher amount next year represented a victory within the administration for foreign aid backers over Treasury and Budget Bureau officials who have been fighting to hold down various kinds of governmental costs to improve chances of a balanced budget.

Although far more than Congress voted this year, the projected program's cost is still less than the actual amount given last year in the year which ended last June 30.

The Commerce Department reported that figure Sunday as $4,571,000,000 and said it included $2,162,000,000 in military aid. Much foreign aid spending comes from appropriations made in earlier years.

Holiday Death Toll in U. S. Hits 606

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic 439
Fires 69
Miscellaneous 131
Total 606

Unusually severe and early winter weather in some sections of the country was a major factor in the cause of deaths of many persons during the extended Thanksgiving holiday.

The worst traffic accident of the holiday occurred in southern Texas, seven persons, including a woman and four children, died in a two-car crash on U.S. Highway 141 Sunday night.

Four persons died in a traffic accident near Litchfield, La., Sunday.

There were several traffic accidents in which three persons died. Among these was one at Graham, Okla., Friday; another near Bradford, Pa., Sunday; one near Holstein, Iowa, in which three students died.

Of the five tragedies, the worst was two in which a total of 10 persons died—five at Merrill, Wis., and five at Bristol, R. I.

Several fires took up to three lives. These were in Groveland, Fla., at Southern Pines, N.C., and at Bardonia, Ky.

The period covered by the survey started at 6 p. m. local time Wednesday and ended at midnight Sunday—a total of 102 hours.

The National Safety Council does not issue a forecast of traffic fatalities for the Thanksgiving weekend, but it did estimate that over a four-day non-holiday weekend there would be 470 traffic deaths. The Associated Press recently surveyed a non-holiday weekend of 102 hours and listed 435 traffic deaths, 49 in fires and 101 from miscellaneous causes.

Last Thanksgiving, 454 died in traffic accidents, 54 in fires and 118 in other types of accidents.

NFL Drafts 240 College Players Today

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The 12 National Football League teams today and then set out to out-bid the fledgling American Football League for their services.

Each NFL club selects 20 players in the annual player draft.

Acting Commissioner Austin H. Gonsel named to fill in for the late Bert Bell about a month ago will preside.

While both leagues have talked down a possible battle of check books for the services of top college players, the competition seems almost inevitable.

The NFL teams last week drafted most of the graduating stars sure to be named in today's NFL meeting.

The NFL, now in its 40th year, is hopeful that its stability, as well as hard cash, will influence the stars to play in the established organization.

AFL teams, backed in most cases by millionaires, offer cash and a pitch that players signing with the new league have a better chance to make the

Porker Cage Team Plays Tuesday

PAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—

Arkansas' 1959 basketball team goes against its first foe, of the season, Bartlesville, Okla., tomorrow night.

The Porkers will be the visitors. Bartlesville triumphed the Russian All-Stars on Thanksgiving Day in Philadelphia, 75-59.

Couch Glen Rose of Arkansas is still experimenting with his line-up. Candidates for the starting unit are Clyde Rhoden, 6-3, Donnie Garner, 6-6, Pat Foster, 6-3, Alan Morrison, 6-4, Tommy Rankin, 6-2 and Jerry Carlton, 6-2.

Rhoden moved the Razorbacks in his sophomore season with 350 points. Foster ranked third in scoring with 254 and Garner was fourth with 178.

Within a week after the opener, the Porkers meet Missouri, Oklahoma State and Tulsa, all at Fayetteville.

The AFL hopes to begin operations next season.

NFL teams will select according to the standings at the end of Sunday's games.

Because both the Chicago Cardinals and Los Angeles have 2-8 records one of them will get first pick and the other second. In the next round the order will be reversed.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS
ARKANSAS EMPLOYMENT
SECURITY DIVISION
HOPE, ARKANSAS

All bids for the construction of an office building for the Employment Security Division, State of Arkansas, at Hope, Arkansas, have been rejected and new sealed bids for the work will be received at the Employment Security Division Office in Hope, Arkansas, until 2:00 P. M., Central Standard Time, Thursday, December 17, 1959, at which time and place the bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The work included under a single bid consists of all general construction work, site work, plumbing, heating, ventilating, air conditioning and electrical work. In accordance with the provisions of Act 183 of 1957 as enacted by the Arkansas State Legislature, bidders are required to list the names and state license numbers of proposed Subcontractors for (a) mechanical, (b) electrical, and (c) roofing and sheet metalwork as provided for on the bid form. Bidders shall also submit the amounts of Subcontract bids for the above listed types of work (a, b and c) in a separate sealed envelope to be opened only in the event of substitution for a Subcontractor.

The General Contractor and all Subcontractors on this project shall pay all labor used on this job the prevailing wage rates now being paid in the City of Hope.

Copies of plans, specifications, and other proposed Contract Documents are on file in the office of Erhart, Eichenbaum, Rauch and Blass, Architects, 201 Chester Street, Little Rock, Arkansas, and are open for public inspection.

Properly licensed General Contractors who will submit bids may secure two (2) sets of the plans and specifications upon deposit of a check in the amount of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars made payable to Erhart, Eichenbaum, Rauch, and Blass, which deposit will be refunded to bidders making a bona fide bid upon return of the documents in good condition. Subcontractors may secure additional sets of plans or individual sheets for a fee of printing. Contractors are required to submit a bid and to furnish a bid bond in the amount of the bid and to forfeit their deposit if they fail to do so.

The Employment Security Division reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive informality.

The successful Contractor will be required to furnish a surety bond in the amount of one hundred percent of the Contract price in accordance with the provisions of Act 351 of 1953 and Act 183 of 1957.

Each bidder will be required to submit with his bid a certified check in the amount of five (5%) per cent of the bid, payable to the Employment Security Division, State of Arkansas, which will be forfeited thirty (30) days after opening of the bids if the bidder fails to accept the award and fails to accept the award in accordance with all terms in the Contract Documents.

No bids may be withdrawn after the scheduled closing time of bids for at least 10 days.

Wakes to Find Wall to Wall Ocean Water

ATLANTIC BEACH, N.Y. (AP)—A strange noise awakened Nat Wynn Sunday. He yawned, slipped on his slippers, trotted downstairs and found his living room had vanished.

Where the living room used to be there now was wall-to-wall ocean water.

Wynn trotted back upstairs, told his wife, Edith, that the living room was gone. She yawned and asked where he thought it might have gone. He said he didn't know. So he called police to report a missing living room.

While Mrs. Wynn and their daughter, Marjorie, huddled in the upstairs front of the stucco house, Wynn and police investigated. Also vanished: a 60-foot strip of the Wynn lawn, the den, a dock and cabana.

Atlantic Beach is on the west tip of Long Beach, an island just off the coast of Long Island and not far from the New York City limits in Queens. Long Beach is separated from the mainland by Reynolds Channel, which is where Wynn's living room had gone.

Wynn and the police spotted a huge dredge busy deepening and widening the channel about 200 feet out. The dredged sand was being pumped around to an eroded beach on the Atlantic Ocean side of the island.

Apparently suction from the dredging removed earth from under a sea wall that separated the rear of Wynn's house from the channel. This apparently pulled Wynn's living room floor, the furniture and the rest into the channel. There was no trace of any of it.

The dredging company sent pile drivers to shore up the waterfront.

The fog in the eastern end of the Arkansas-Missouri border was, according to most historians, placed there because a wealthy planter wished his land to remain in Missouri when Arkansas became a separate territory in 1819.

Mrs. C. G. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughes and children all of Nashville, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Hughes and Miss Linda Olson of Conway, Mrs. Dewey Bush and Miss Pearl Hughes of Tarkenton, Mrs. Sally Lee Hines of Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Gibson and children of Little Rock spent the holidays with Mrs. Charles Gibson.

Miss Barbara LaGrone was here from Dallas to see Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaGrone during the holiday weekend.

Miss Nancy Lou Smith

Miss Nancy Lou Smith to Wed James Clyde Hord

Miss Nancy Lou Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edward Smith of Hope, is the bride-elect of James Clyde Hord, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Garrison Hord of Stuttgart. Both Miss Smith and Mr. Hord are graduates of Henderson State Teachers College. Miss Smith is a member of the Forrest Park Elementary School faculty in Pine Bluff. Her fiancé is employed in the sales department of Arkansas Power & Light Co. in Marked Tree. The wedding will take place December 27 at 2:30 p. m. in the First Methodist Church in Hope.

there are the Phoebe Warren Andrews' residential club — modern versions of the old-time New York boarding house. My mother and I lived at several such boarding houses when I was a child. And what fun they were. Never a dull moment!

Also in New York is the Andrew Freedman Home founded by the baseball magnate, where men as well as women reside. A globe-trotting relative of my father's, Uncle Charley Balisto, spent several happy years at the Andrew Freedman, coming and going at will. However, he had to pay no entrance fee and there was a long waiting list.

My own efforts to combat loneliness as a widow, may be of help to some of your patients. My late husband often said, "If I go first, remember to live." He did go first. I sought to broaden my horizon, improve my work and create new brain cells, by taking writing assignments in far corners — in places which held no memories. But, no matter where I went, even in cities teeming with people, like London, Paris, Athens and Cairo, I could not escape that dreadful loneliness. I had to force myself to go through the motions of living. It was a terrific struggle but the very effort gave me strength. I found myself so absorbed in my work that I had forgotten to be lonely. I was remembering to live!

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My husband is an only child. We have been married over a year and are still living with his parents. My mother-in-law keeps doing everything over that I do. She tells us what to do with our money and how to spend it. She's running our lives. I'd like to change the situation before it breaks up our marriage, but how can I explain this to my husband when he just doesn't think it's all that bad?—Troubled Pearl Trubled: Speak up! But don't make your mother-in-law the issue. Tell your husband that it is contrary to nature for a young couple not to have a home of their own. His mother and father had one. Why shouldn't you and he? Each and every one of us must lead our own lives.

Practice what you preach by house for apartment hunting. Once you find something attractive and within your budget, show it to your husband. Before you know it, he'll be cutting the silver cord.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My boy friend, Jack, who is 17, and a senior in high school, is one of two children. His older brother is married, therefore Jack is the only one left at home. His father is very nice, but away most of the time. Jack never takes me out unless it's okay with his mother. I understand that she wasn't given the right to lead her own life but I don't think that is any reason for her to ruin Jack's. I love him and he says he loves me, but I'm sick and tired of trying to put up with this handicap. What do you suggest I do to get him to lead his own life? I've tried to talk to him about it but every time I start I back out—Bobbie

Dear Bobbie: There is a very good reason for "backing out" that he should cut loose from Mama's apron strings. Your inner self is saying the equivalent of "Mind your own business."

Jack won't thank you for calling him a jellyfish and if he is the spineless type, who must ask Mama first, he'll certainly pass along your comments, which won't help matters.

Break with him before you're too deeply involved. If this is impossible, try the indirect treatment. Give him a fill-in on your dream boy — the dominant, handsome sort, who takes charge.

Play the clinging vine—encourage him to make decisions—never, never make one for him. When-ever he shows the least determination to lead his own life, praise him for being so strong-willed. Good luck, whatever you do!

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her care of this newspaper.

State's Duck Season Is Now Open

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas' duck hunting season opened at noon today and prospects range from poor to good. Lack of rain has dried up several hunting areas.

In the Bayou Metou area of Arkansas and Jefferson counties, largest of the public hunting grounds, good hunting is expected. After today, shooting hours will be from sunrise to sunset, the state Game and Fish Commission said. The season ends Jan. 8.

Bag limit on ducks is four a day or eight in possession, which may include one wood duck and one hooded merganser.

The season on coots, and bag limit, is the same as for ducks.

Prescott's McRae Tigers Defeat Yerger

By PAT CARR

The under-rated McRae High Tigers of Prescott played head-to-head last Friday night as they out-ran and out-scored the Yerger High Tigers 24-13 at Hammons Stadium.

Despite the 7-2 record Prescott had going into the game they were potential underdogs by at least three touchdowns, but the outcome was much more in contrast than the score indicates. The game was the last of the season for both teams. Yerger ended the season with an over-all 5-6-1 record.

Yerger received the opening kick-off on its own 26. On the first play from scrimmage, Reed ran 74 yards to the Prescott 3, but a penalty nullified the play. With the 4th down situation on their own 43, Yerger gambled and lost the ball on downs at that point. McRae took over and started moving as Hart carried to the 31.

Two plays later Hopson advanced to the 1. A penalty put the ball back on the 6. Walters went over untouched for the TD. The PAT was wide.

Seconds later the visitors hit paydirt again as Yerger fumbled a kick-off returned at the 25 where Walters scooped it up and raced the distance for the second Prescott TD. Again the conversion failed.

After a quick exchange of the ball, Yerger was in possession at the mid-field stripe and managed to move to the 33 for their deepest penetration of the night. However, they lost the ball on downs at the 30, but the series of plays led to their first score as Knox recovered a blocked punt at the Prescott 12. Reed carried to the 2 from where FB McFadden went over for the first Yerger marker. The PAT failed and McRae led 12-6 at the half.

Neither team was able to score in the third quarter as both defensive units were displaying maneuvers that canceled out all scoring threats.

The first score of the second half came when Walters scooped up a fumble on the Yerger 30 and outdistanced the Tiger secondary for the tally. The point after failed.

Later in the fourth quarter Reed scored on a 16 yard jump for the third down fake-punt ran 74 yards from scrimmage. The PAT failed and the game ended with McRae winning 24-13.

Play Saturday Ends All Bowl Speculation

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Navy has sent Army's Black Knights home on their shields and it's a LSU-Mississippi rematch for the Sugar Bowl, but there still are a few things to be settled in college football.

There is that one game, with UCLA, standing between Syracuse and an unbeaten, untied record for the national championship.

A yes or no from Navy on an invitation to play Penn State in the Dec. 19 Liberty Bowl, the only major bowl berth open.

And a decision that would make Steve Sebo a losing winner at Penn.

Syracuse (9-0) plays UCLA (13-1), in Memorial Coliseum at Los Angeles this Saturday—NBC, 4:15 p.m. EST—in the Orange's final bid for the national title, decided by The Associated Press poll.

The nation's sportswriters and broadcasters, who have made Syracuse the No. 1 team for three weeks, cast their ballots in the decisive voting after this week-end's game.

The boys from Syracuse, No. 1 in total offense, rushing offense, scoring, total defense and rushing defense, haven't played since Nov. 21 when they walloped Boston U. 46-6. They scored 117 points in their last two games.

UCLA, the team that upset Southern California 10-3 and left Syracuse the only undefeated, untied team in major college play, made it four in a row last Saturday by defeating Utah 21-0.

Navy should have an answer on the Liberty Bowl bid today. The Midshipmen, joining the Cadets with the top point total ever in the 60-year old service series for a 43-12 rout, have a 5-4-1 record. Penn State is 6-2.

Alabama (7-1-2), which turned down a Bluegrass Bowl bid after defeating Auburn 10-0, could get the Liberty bid if Navy says no. Pitt (6-4), paired with Syracuse as the only teams to beat Penn State, could be a third choice.

The other major bowls were filled Saturday, and the pairings look like this:

Bluebonnet at Houston — Texas Christian (8-2) vs. Clemson (8-2), Jan. 1

ROSE at Pasadena, Calif.—Wisconsin (7-2) vs. Washington (9-1), Cotton at Dallas — Syracuse (9-0) vs. Texas (9-1)

Sugar at New Orleans—Louisiana State (9-1) vs. Mississippi (9-1)

Orange at Miami — Missouri (6-4) vs. Georgia (9-1), Jan. 2

Gator at Jacksonville, Fla. — Arkansas (8-2) vs. Georgia Tech (6-4), Jan. 2

Texas received the Southwest Conference nod for the host role in the Cotton Bowl although finishing in a three-way tie with TCU and Arkansas. Texas did it by beating Texas A&M 20-17 on Thanksgiving Day and TCU made it with a 19-0 job on Southern Methodist Saturday. Arkansas finished the season a week earlier.

Clemson, the Atlantic Coast Conference champ, drew a bid to the inaugural Bluebonnet by ripping Furm in 56-3. Mississippi, beaten only by LSU, 7-3, got a second crack at the Tigers in the Sugar Bowl after smearing Mississippi State 42-9. Georgia, the Southeastern Conference champion, secured the Orange Bowl trip after a 21-14 victory over Georgia Tech, which got the Gator bowl bid anyway.

As for Sebo, the coach who suffered through the Quakers' lean years, Penn's faculty administrative committee reportedly recommended he be fired. Rutgers' John Stegman, one-time Princeton assistant, is the report of successor.

Sebo, who came to Penn in 1954, brought the Quakers their first Ivy League title.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar Periods as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major Periods are shown in boldface type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The Minor Periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.
